ANALYSIS OF STUDENT'S FEEDBACK 2022-2023

The feedback from students during the year 2022 to 2023 shows that the students are overall very satisfied with the academic environment in the college. Around 80 percent of the students believe that the teachers come well prepared before taking the classes. 71 percent said the teachers are available for any help after class hours. 74 percent students are very satisfied that periodical assessments are conducted in the college. 96 percent of the students are aware that attendance records are properly maintained by all the teachers. However, there is one area in which the students have said that there is lot more scope to use modern techniques of teaching. The students also mentioned that the library staff of the college are very cooperative. Students want continuous cleaning of toilets.

Suggestions

1. Students want a play-ground in the college.
2. Need more variety of food in the college canteen.
3. Students also want a clean bathroom.
4. Students want the professors to teach through presentations.
5. Usage of smart boards need to be increased.

Actions Taken

Discussions are on regarding further changes in the canteen. Some new food items have already been introduced for the students.

Washrooms are kept clean by attendants on regular intervals.

Analysis of Parents Feedback

2022-2023

Feedback is a continuous process which is used in every institution to understand the progress of the students. It helps to understand the student-teacher relationship better as well as enables the authorities to improve institutional lacunas. Feedback from the parents is important not only for the purpose of grading the teaching-learning system that exists in the college, but also helps the teachers understand whether the parents are aware of the attendance of the wards in college.

All the parents who were present during the Parent Teachers Meeting held in the November 2022 are satisfied with the Teaching-learning process in the college. Almost cent percent parents are also very satisfied with the support they receive from the Head of the Institution and all the teaching staffs. The Office staffs are also very helpful. Parents have shown some concern regarding their wards using the libraries.

Suggestions

Parents have not given any suggestion during this Feedback process.
